TRUSTEE TASKS

On December 28, 2006 the Trustee conducted a first meeting of creditors concerning the debtor. Schedule A listed a single family residence located at 2232 Hillsboro, Naperville, held in joint tenancy. The home was valued at $575,000 listing debt of $365,000 with roughly an equity of $210,000. There were 17 unsecured creditors totaling $67,182.00 listed on Schedule F.

The SOFA listed a chapter 13 filing where debtors made an attempt to retain the real estate before the filing of the Chapter 7.

Schedule I listed the debtor as a customer service representative at Crate and Barrel for one year and the non-filing spouse as owner/manager of Color All over three years. Debtors salary was $1,950 per month and the souse had income of $5,000 per month. The expenses shown for the home was $3,840.00 per month.

The case was filed on November 28, 2006 the 341 meeting was scheduled for December 28, 2006. The first mortgage holder filed a motion to modify the stay on December 12, 2006 for a hearing on January 5, 2007.

At the 341 hearing the Trustee continued the case to January 18, 2007 to investigate the value of the home. The debtor confirmed the information listed in the schedules and state they had been attempting to sell the home but were unable to obtain any reasonable offers. The debtor did testify that $575,000 was a reasonable sale price.

3 HOURS

On December 12, 2006 Wells Fargo Bank filed a motion to modify the stay and foreclose on the property. On January 5, 2007 J.P. Morgan Chase filed a motion to modify the say. The Trustee retained counsel to defend against the two mortgage holders attempting to foreclose.

The Trustee continued the case to January 18, 2007. At that time the Trustee's counsel had already researched title and found it clear except the first and second mortgages. The Trustee determined that by administering the case the creditors who already had filed claims would receive a meaningful distribution from administering the case.

5 HOURS

After the Trustee retained counsel and filed an initial report of assets the Trustee retained the services of a real estate broker. The broker did a market analysis and a drive by inspection. The broker was not able to gain access to the home. The broker stated the home should sell for approximately $550,000 but should be listed at $595,000 based on an analysis of the total area.

5 HOURS

The response to the request for relief from the automatic stay by both the first and second mortgage holders was basically the same. The Wells Fargo claim was listed at $254,000 and the J.P. Morgan Chase claim was $125,000.

According to the Chase motion the value of the property was $575,000. The Trustee had conducted a market appraisal of the property and was informed and believed that the value was at least $575,000. Under this analysis the Trustee believes there to be at least $190,000 in equity in the property. The equity cushion is sufficient to provide adequate protection for Chase's lien in the property.

The Trustee had retained a broker and the Trustee fully intended to pay Wells Fargo Bank and JP Morgan Chase Bank. The Trustee further intended to conduct a sale which will cover all costs, pay $30,000 in exemptions and make a meaningful distribution to unsecured creditors.

The Trustee proceeded with the sale of the real estate even though a high level of radon had to be investigated and repairs were required to the exterior. 18 HOURS

The sale of the real estate was for $547,000. A final closing statement at Chicago Title listed final disbursements as first mortgage payoff of $267,726.22, second mortgage payoff of $147,710.91, real estate taxes of $9,972.27, broker commissions of $32,820.00, title insurance, county stamps, recording fees, survey of $2,915.00, repairs to Dryvit, $4,445.00, radon inspection of $150.00, exemption to debtor of $15,000.00, homeowners association fees of $1,427.95, radon repairs of $1,075.00, warranty for moisture of $995.00, fee for HOA payoff and overnight delivery fees of $130.00 and sale funds to husband of debtor of $31,316.32.

The net closing resulted in the estate receiving a net amount of $31,316.33. The secured creditors and the exemption of debtor were paid in full. The non-filing spouse received $31,316.32 in equity for his interest in the house.

If the estate had not been administered by the Trustee the unsecured creditors would have had no return and the debtor and debtor's non-filing spouse would not have received their exemption or recovered any equity in the house. 29 HOURS

An accountant was employed and final tax returns were prepared and filed. A letter from the IRS was received acknowledging no tax liability to the estate.

1 HOUR

Claims were examined and a final report was prepared and filed.
